Israel in Egypt: Archaeology that Supports the Biblical Record

Is Egyptian archaeology really silent about the Hebrew people and the Israelites? In this talk, Nate will highlight archaeological finds from Egypt that showcase and support the biblical record regarding the Hebrew people and Israel. Having traveled to Egypt multiple times himself in research regarding the accounts in Genesis and Exodus, hear firsthand how Egyptology really does support Scripture!

About Nate Loper:

Nate Loper is the Executive Director for Canyon Ministries, a ministry organization that has been providing guided trips and tours of the Grand Canyon from a biblical creation perspective for over 25 years. Nate has personally spent over 800 days teaching at the Grand Canyon on various river trips and rim tours and has led tours to various national parks and museums around the world for the past 20 years.
